F. No. Imp.11th meeting of Council /AHPC/Admn /6525 Dated: - 19th November,2025

The Chief Secretary
Government of AJK
Muzaffarabad

Subject: URGENT DIRECTIVE FOR INSTITUTIONAL REGISTRATION WITH THE ALLIED HEALTH PROFESSIONALS COUNCIL (AHPC).

Respected Sir/Madam,

The Allied Health Professionals Council (AHPC) has been established by the Government of Pakistan under the AHPC Act No. 2022-IX to regulate the registration of all Allied Health Professionals (AHPs) and their educational/training institutions, schools, colleges, and universities across Pakistan. Its mandate is to ensure the quality of basic and higher education and training provided to AHPs. The AHPC is the sole statutory body responsible for the following key functions, as outlined in the AHPC Act 2022:

- Institutional Approval and Registration: AHPC is the authorized body for the approval and registration of institutions providing basic and higher education and training in various allied health professions (Sections 12 (1), (4), 18, and 19).
- Professional and Student Registration: AHPC maintains the registration records for all Allied Health Professionals and Students (Section 16 (1) and (2), and Section 20).
- Curriculum Formulation: AHPC is authorized to formulate a uniform national curriculum for all Allied Health disciplines listed in Schedule-I of the AHPC Act 2022.

During the 11th Council Meeting, held on October 21, 2025, the Council decided to request your support in issuing an urgent directive to all universities and institutions within your province that offer AHP degrees or diplomas. All such institutions must comply with the following mandatory directives to ensure legal compliance and continuity of operations:

1. Mandatory Institutional Registration: All Universities/Institutions offering AHP degrees/diplomas must immediately seek and obtain institutional registration with the AHPC on a priority basis.
